

Unitec Creative Industries – Weekly Newsletter: 1-8 October 2018

Unitec Costume students collaborate with Japanese artist for Art Week

Year 3 Unitec Costume Design & Management students have collaborated with Japanese artist Noriko Collins on a project for Art Week called Kimono Kollab on Saturday 13 October 10am-3pm at the Swan Hotel in Parnell. Using discarded traditional Kimono's to create costumes for Japanese band Haten Kohro for their Tokyo Comicon performance in December 2018. These will then be on display at the 'Haru No Kawa' exhibition. Artweek runs in Auckland from 6-14 October.

Unitec films gain selection to Pollywood 2018

Fresh from screening at the Pasifika Film Fest in Canberra, Australia over last weekend, 2017 grad films Moon Melon and The Boy from Rarotonga have been selected to screen at the annual Pollywood Pasifika Film Festival on Sunday, 4 November at Mangere Arts Centre. Unitec Screen Arts graduate filmmakers Trina Peters and Joshua Te Ariki Baker have been invited to introduce their films at the gala night.

Unitec students feature in dance show celebrating history of Manukau

Unitec dance students featured in last week's ONE: The Earth Rises, a celebration of the history of the Manukau region. The multi-cultural performance featured t'ai chi and kapa haka. More than 50 dancers were involved, both professional and aspiring performers from TOHU Dance Theatre, Te Kura Maori o Nga Tapuwae College, Unitec Dance, and James Cook High School. And there was also an interview with Unitec dance student Veronica Lyu. Check out all our amazing Unitec dance talent on show during the Tempo Dance Festival NZ in Auckland from 4-14 October. More here:

<https://www.tvnz.co.nz/one-news/new-zealand/m-ori-polynesian-chinese-culture-feature-in-dance-show-exploring-manukaus-history>

UPCOMING UNITEC CI EVENTS

OCTOBER 2018

4-14 Tempo Dance Festival

6-31 Show Me Shorts Film Festival

23 Gallery: "Ceramics at Unitec" in association with Auckland festival of Ceramics 2018, 5.30pm

27 Uni Shorts Film Festival 2018 Screening & Awards Night Red Lecture Theatre 12-5pm

ENDS/