

Unitec Creative Industries – Weekly Newsletter: 6-13 May 2019

Unitec acting grad Kura Forrester (seated far right) stars in TVNZ's new, local comedy series with a difference called The Educators. Created by NZ comedian Jesse Griffin, Educators is an unscripted series set behind the scenes of an ordinary Kiwi secondary school, following the hopelessly inept people in charge of educating the next generation. Unitec Creative Industries and GALLERY ONE invites you to the exhibition, AINSLEY O'CONNELL: MEMORY OF ORIGIN. Ainsley O'Connell is a practicing artist, architect and lecturer in Architecture here at Unitec. O'Connell's contemporary art practice explores spatial and contextual issues, including the materiality and identity of objects. Originating from found macrocarpa timber beams, O'Connell explains that MEMORY OF ORIGIN presents 'a series of new cylindrical objects cast in plaster, glass and concrete, with algebraic relationships linking old and new objects....Objects that initially appear as replicas create surprises as differences are noted, ranging from the obvious to the sometimes very subtle, now promoting those objects from copy to unique original.' This quietly reflective and thought provoking exhibition runs from the 14th May – 29th May, please join us for the exhibition opening event on Tuesday 14th May from 5.00pm – 7.00pm.
