

Unitec Creative Industries – Weekly Newsletter: 18 - 24 June 2019

Last Friday was the final performance of Nga Patu Korero: Wall That Talk. A theatre production based on stories from Auckland prison performed by prisoners of Te Piriti (Unit 8) - Auckland Prison Paremoremo. This was a project lead by Dr Rand Hazou in collaboration with playwright Stuart Hoar, myself as the mask and movement advisor and prison theatre expert Dr Sarah Woodland from Griffith University in Queensland/Australia. The performance was attended by unit 8 inmates, prison staff, Massey university staff and prison guards.
