

Unitec Creative Industries - Weekly Newsletter: 7-14 Oct 2019

On Tuesday night is Artweek Late Night in the city. Please come and see our Unitec Artweek contribution the "Little Theatre" in Chancery Square. This was made by Unitec Creative Industries staff; Paul Woodruffe, Carsten Kudra, Erin O'Neil, and Jimmy Thompson. The content is a 360 degree video that can be navigated through a gaming joyce stick, this is a first!

Four nominations for web series, Touch Wood in the NZ Narrative category for NZ Web Fest 2019 including Best Actor for Unitec 2018 acting grad, Jake Pitcher (pictured below). More info here.

Creative Industries and Gallery One invites you to the exhibition Carolyn Menzies | Immaterial. Derived from an uneasy alignment between the industrial and domestic milieu, Immaterial is an elegant exploration of form and material manipulation through which Menzies considers morphology and the process of transformation in establishing a more mutable manmade world within the gallery space. Carolyn Menzies was born in New Zealand and currently resides in Melbourne, she has exhibited in solo and group exhibitions in NZ, Australia and the United Kingdom.

This engaging exhibition runs from Oct 15th - Nov 7th in Gallery One, Building 1 Unitec.

Exhibition opening event on Tuesday Oct 15th from 5.00 - 7.00pm.

The artist will give a floor talk in GALLERY ONE on Wed, Oct 16th at 12.30 - 1.00 pm.
