

Unitec Creative Industries - Weekly Newsletter: 25 Nov-2 Dec 2019

Acting grad, Muna Arbon has got her big break on Shortland Street, plucked right from the props department of New Zealand's long running TV drama where she has worked since completing her studies at Unitec School of Creative Industries in 2017. Having lived in West Auckland all her life, she reveled in the role of Kimmy. Read more here.

Acting grad Fasitua Amosa is directing Silo Theatre's first production for 2020 Upu, which is part of the 2020 Auckland Arts Festival programme, and brings the wealth and power of Pacific literature to roaring theatrical life. Curated by award-winning poet Grace Taylor and led by powerhouse director Fasitua Amosa, UPU gives the stage to Oceania's most electrifying poetry. Ben Brown, Karlo Mila, Albert Wendt and more: UPU is for the trailblazers, the icons and the new writers transforming Aotearoa today. More here.

Check out more news on our social media channels, Unitec's Art & Design Facebook page or Unitec's Performing & Screen Arts Facebook page.

For all other social media updates on Unitec's School of Creative Industries visit our official facebook page and also our Instagram and Twitter channels @unitec_creative

COMING UP

December

- 2 Summer Semester begins
- 5 Unitec Excellence Awards 2019
- 20 Final working day