	Manager Learning and Achievement
Subject	Team name changes & update for Learning and Achievement team(s)

Currently, Learning and Achievement teams are made up of four Learning Support services within the wider Student Success area:

- Academic Development Lecturers (Academic Student Support)
- Access4Success (Disability Support)
- Careers Development Team (Career Development Support)
- Library Knowledge Specialists (Librarians)

For the purposes of improving student access to services within the Learning and Achievement, the four teams recently completed a review of their team names and will be rebranded as follows from Semester 1, 2020.

EXISTING TEAM NAMES	NEW TEAM NAMES
Academic Development Lecturers Team (Academic study and learning support for students)	Learning Advisors Team
Library Knowledge Specialists Team (Information Literacy Skills and Research support for students and staff).	Subject Librarian Team
Access4Success Team (Disability Advocacy and Learning Resources for students with impairments, long term illness and injury).	No change. Team roles to stay the same.
Careers Development Team (Career support for students, graduates and prospective students)	No change. Team roles to stay the same.

Table 1: Name changes – effective as of Sem 1, 2020

Please communicate these changes as widely as possible in the lead up to the start of Semester.

Your cooperation is much appreciated

Ngā mihi nui
