For Dropdown
Excellent	All scheduling and contracting completed by November 30	All logistical arrangements completed more than six weeks out from the scheduled visit date	The monitoring report is received, reviewed and confirmed within stated timeframes The report is a mix of commendations and achievable recommendations with no requirements (including in-text) The report identifies very few gaps and weaknesses and indicates significant improvement since the last visit.	All of the following: - The action plan is well prepared and addresses all of the issues raised in the Monitors report. - The actions demonstrate self-assessment capability and are SMART. - Individuals have been allocated responsibility and timeframes set. - The actions are regularly assessed for their effectiveness.
Good	Any scheduling and contracting completed after November 30 but before January 30	Any logistical arrangements completed between six weeks and four weeks out from the scheduled visit date	The monitoring report is received, reviewed and confirmed within stated timeframes The report is a mix of commendations and achievable recommendations with minimal requirements (including in-text) The report identifies few gaps and weaknesses but acknowledges they are under control. Report indicates improvement since the last visit.	Most of the following: - The action plan is well prepared and addresses all of the issues raised in the Monitors report. - The actions demonstrate self-assessment capability and are SMART. - Individuals have been allocated responsibility and timeframes set. - The actions are regularly assessed for their effectiveness.
Marginal	Any scheduling and contracting completed after January 30 but before end February	Any logistical arrangements completed between four weeks and three weeks out from the scheduled visit date	The monitoring report is received, reviewed and confirmed outside of stated timeframes The report is a mix of commendations and recommendations with requirements (including in-text) The report identifies a number of gaps and weaknesses and questions whether they are under control. Report indicates some improvement since the last visit.	Most of the following: - The action plan is marginal in its ability to address the issues raised in the Monitors report. - The actions demonstrate minimal self-assessment capability and are not SMART. - There are gaps in the allocation to responsibility and the setting of timeframes. - The actions are inconsistently assessed for their effectiveness.
Poor	Any scheduling and contracting not completed prior to the start of Semester 1	Any logistical arrangements not completed prior to three weeks out from the scheduled visit date	The monitoring report is received, reviewed and confirmed well outside of stated timeframes, or not at all. The report is a mix of commendations and recommendations with significant requirements (including in-text) The report identifies a large number of gaps and weaknesses and suggests that these are not under control. Report indicates little improvement since the last visit.	Any of the following: The Action plan is: - Not sufficient to address the issues raised in the Monitoring Visit; or - Sufficient but not followed through in a timely manner; or - Not developed to the standard required. The actions do not demonstrate self-assessment capability and are not SMART. Individuals have not been allocated responsibility and timeframes not set. The actions are not regularly assessed for their effectiveness.
