

Unitec School of Creative Industries - Weekly Newsletter: 24 Aug 2020

NEWS

Congratulations to the following artists and Unitec grads, selected for the second round of judging for this year's prestigious Wallace Art Awards: Oliver Cain, past winner Tira Walsh (Kaipara Wallace Arts Trust Award 2019, pictured) and Caryline Boreham. Sir James Wallace established the Annual Art Awards in 1992 and are now the longest surviving and largest annual art awards of their kind in New Zealand. Over the years some of NZ's most prominent artists have entered and many of the winners' and finalists' artworks have been purchased by the Trust to add to the Collection. Part of the operating philosophy of the Awards has always been expansion, connection and development: by being offered artist residencies. This year the Annual Wallace Art Awards has suspended its residential placements as prizes and instead is offering cash Awards to the total value of $132,000 in their place. More here.

Despite Auckland returning to a Level three lockdown, the learning continued online. Last week, Unitec dance students had the opportunity to chat with the amazing team at The New Zealand Dance Company in their new "Dialogue Dates" series. Thanks to the NZDC team for providing space for connection and conversation with our students.
