

Unitec School of Creative Industries - Weekly Newsletter: 3 August 2020

NEWS

Unitec BCE students Jacob Hamilton, Blessilda Cabaloza, Jimmy Ma'ia'i, Chang Lee and Kim Lu have all been selected to represent Unitec School of Creative Industries at this year's Eden Arts Art Schools Award which will be announced on Wednesday at Webb's Gallery, Mt Eden.

Shortland Street newcomer and 2012 Unitec acting grad, Chye-ling Huang hopes her biggest role on mainstream New Zealand television will open the door for other Asian actors. Read more here.

The Chief Executive's Award for Research Excellence was presented last week to painter Tira Walsh, a graduate of Unitec's Master of Creative Practice and Design & Contemporary Arts undergraduate.

Unitec visual arts grad and hip-hop musician, Diggy Dupé (Stephen Atutolu), a successful rising star in the Aotearoa contemporary music scene, will be a guest performer at Tautai's First Fridays this Friday, 7 August at Tautai Gallery on 300 Karangahape Rd. He will be part of an evening of inter-generational talanoa and performance featuring Cora-Allan Wickliffe, Naawie Tutugoro, and Luc Tutugoro hosted by Teokotai Paitai.
