Student comments

- Safe: “There is a safe and supportive learning environment that makes sure every student is involved in class discussions. As a student, I feel motivated and supported to learn and try out new competencies”
- Supported: “He takes time to listen, supports me to solve problems, and clarify assignments for me as I sometimes have trouble understanding instructions. He also taught me to manage my time better and organise my work more efficiently.”
- Guided: “When you talked about studying Masters it wasn’t if, but when. That made me begin to think about my future and all the study possibilities available at Unitec which solidified the next steps I needed to take after the Certificate.”

Nikita Sharma

- Journey from India to New Zealand
- Lifestyle journalist, content writer, and business developer
- Murals for communities in Delhi and Mumbai
- Graduation from Unitec and now a public artist and graphic designer

Experience at Unitec

- Overcoming challenges from Covid
- Learning during lockdowns
- Practice-based research

Public art project involving Ross Liew, two Maori artists, international students from Elam School of Fine Arts, AUT, and Auckland City Council.

The mural design depicted the diversity of Auckland, Maori values, the site history, and an element of connection for passersby.

Big project

Looking ahead

- This project has been rewarding as we experienced working on a large scale mural from the industry expert, Ross Liew himself, and learned about Maori history, culture and their values.
- This experience has put me more in-sync with myself on a land that doesn't feel foreign anymore.
- My experience at Unitec taught me to keep learning no matter what. I am up-skilling to get a full-time job and also developing a public art proposal for Auckland Art Week.

THE TAKITAHĪ WEAWE

The woven representation of the Unitec Renewal Strategy is called 'Takitahi' - to weave over one strand, then under the other strand. Takitahi is a symbol that represents synergy, cohesion and strength. Each and every strand - and each of our values and goals - needs to be woven together in unity to create the weave.
