Ingram-Tung whaanau
"omg these are yummy"

"I don't do the 'no measurement' type of baking, but these turned out really well"

"They were delish
and I gave it a go
with some butter
and a sprinkle of salt"

Fried Bread*

Te'evale whaanau

"It was so light and fluffy"

Kraay Whaanau “my mother-in-law loved it, and thought just butter was even better”

Vaughan Whaanau — Taniwhaa burgers

"The waiata by six60 made me tangi (cry). Then I shared it with my whānau, because my whānau is my waka"

"You have brought Te Reo to life for me this week with your posts this week"

"Miharo, wonderful way to start my day"

"so much good information! Really loved the tutorial from Paula – so easy and yet so effective"

"Is it just me or are the Māori waiata just too groovy man"

"Thanks so much for the daily messages...loving the music"

"Always loved Māori waiata but these new songs and artists are really awesome"

"I really enjoyed reading your email everyday"

"I was practising my pepeha and my son got really interested. We wrote his together and now he's practising a line a day"

"Awesome, a good start for my day"

"I am looking forward to shouting 'MAKA' during the rugby this week"

"I've enjoyed the week and activities"

"I really am enjoying the daily emails about Te Reo Māori"
