

Unitec

Masters Scholarships

for new and returning students

Each year Tūāpapa Rangahau provides scholarships to students across Unitec's Masters programs, supporting Unitec students to succeed.

Programme Base Scholarships:

These scholarships are available to support talented students enrolled or intending to enroll in one of the following Master Programmes:

Master of Applied Practice \(Social Practice\) Scholarships

Master of Architecture Scholarships

Master of Architecture \(Professional\) Scholarships

Master of Applied Technology \(Computing\) Scholarships

Master of Creative Practice Scholarships

Master of Landscape Architecture Scholarships

Special Scholarships:

Master Scholarships for Māori Students

Master Scholarships for Pasifika Students

Eligibility Criteria:

- Enrolled or intending to enroll in a full-time or part-time Unitec Masters Programme
- Committed to completing a research thesis of at least 90 credits
- Minimum average grade – as given below – or equivalent in all previous study at Level 7 or above;
 - a. minimum grade of B+ for Programme Base scholarships
 - b. minimum grade of B for Māori and Pacific scholarships
- Provisional grades can be used to calculate the GPA if necessary.
- International students are eligible to apply if they meet all the above criteria.
- Full-time Unitec staff are not eligible to apply.

Amount and Numbers:

Amount and number of these scholarships varies every year. Please refer to Scholarship's webpage on Unitec website after the opening of scholarships.

Timing:

Applications for these scholarships open in September/October 2022 and close in January/February 2023.

Scholarship Application Support:

Scholarship application support is available, please contact;

Māori Advisor Nina Pelling npelling@unitec.ac.nz

Pacific Advisor Ioane Aleke Fa'avae ialekefaavae@unitec.ac.nz

Programme Scholarship Advisor Katy Mann Benn kmbenn@unitec.ac.nz For more information, please contact Asma Munir amunir@unitec.ac.nz